

Kostas Vomvolos

Kostas has composed music for more than 200 theatrical productions, 3 feature films, and 15 documentaries. He has collaborated primarily with the National Theatre of Northern Greece (NTNG), the National Theatre of Greece, the Athens Festival, the Greek National Opera, the Experimental Stage of "Art," the Art Theatre, most of the Regional Municipal Theatres (DIPETHE), London's Actor's Touring Company, and other.

Since 1994, he has led the ensemble Primavera en Salonico, which, in collaboration with Savina Yannatou, has released 10 CDs and performed throughout Europe, in major cities in the United States, Canada, Argentina, Australia, China, Korea, and more. He is also a member of the ensemble "Hemerinoi Kolimvites" (Winter Swimmers).

Since 2005, he has taught in the Theatre Department of the Faculty of Fine Arts at Aristotle University of Thessaloniki (AUTH) and, since 2015, in the Master's program at the Theatre Studies Department in Nafplio. He has also taught seminars at the University of Cyprus, Trinity College Dublin, in Monterey (California), Berlin, and elsewhere.